

The Princesses' Wives

An old king lives
in a land far away.
He calls his sons
to talk one day.

One will be King
and needs a bride –
someone to stand there
at his side.

How can he find
the perfect wife
for the new King
for all his life?

The King has a plan
to find the best one.
So this is the story
that says how it's done.

There was a king in a land far away.
He called his sons to talk one day.
“You need someone to share your lives,
so shoot your arrows and find your wives.”
The three princes leave right away.
They must find their wives on the same day.

He finds his bride. "I'm the Duke's daughter!"
Prince Fyodor's arrow lands near his bride.
"I'm the Merchant's daughter," she gladly cried.
Then the two princes take their wives to the King.
"Well done, my sons. They're perfect, I think."
